Become a Volunteer Job Mentor

with the Job Mentoring Service

Support a skilled migrant or refugee job seeker from a non-English-speaking background into employment in Wellington. Experience the rewards of sharing your knowledge and skills and fostering diversity in the workplace.

We are looking for volunteers to share their knowledge of the New Zealand work environment with a skilled migrant or refugee job seeker from a non-English speaking background.

Our mentors offer support, ideas and information on how to be an effective job seeker:

- how to go about looking for work in Wellington
- how to apply for jobs
- how to write an effective CV
- how to prepare for an interview
- how to build networks and break into the employment field

Register for our next training:

Saturday 24 September 9:30am – 3:30pm

186 Willis Street
Te Aro, Wellington

You will be trained, resourced and supported as a mentor by the Job Mentoring Service (English Language Partners Wellington)
